COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

Children between six and eighteen years of age are required under RSA 193:1 to be enrolled and in attendance at schools or in an approved home education program.

Any Student between sixteen and eighteen years of age seeking a waiver of RSA 193:1 shall submit an alternative learning plan to the Superintendent. The Superintendent is authorized to approve the alternative learning plan. If the alternative learning plan is not approved, the parent or guardian of the student may appeal the decision to the School Board.
